Here's a bit more information so you know what you're letting yourself in for!

First a quote from the blurb in the Winestate magazine regarding their annual Options competition. "Even if people are new to wine and they really don't know how to tell the difference between a Cabernet and a Shiraz (and none of us do either!), at least they have options to choose from, and in Wine Options a good guess is just as rewarding as one that is answered through knowledge and experience. So Wine Options is a game for everyone to enjoy." There are prizes to be won by the team that think up the catchiest name and also by the team who wears the best team costume.

Some examples of team names: The Fabulous Four Fermenters, National Wine Liberation Front, The Big Spit, Hard Act to Swallow, Deft Palates, Noble Rotters, The Spitt-Hoons, No Screwpulls, Natural Born Swillers, Pinot Envy, etc. Our team name and costume prizes will be selected by secret ballot.

How to Play the Options Game. (the format)

Teams of 4 people are asked to answer 5 questions on each of the 8 wines (4 whites and 4 reds). You will select your answer from the three options given for each question. The wines may originate from any country and be made from any grape variety. Wines are expected to be good examples of country of origin and grape variety. All of the wines are made from the major classical varieties. The wines may range between $10 and $70 in value for each bottle. Scoring will be explained on the night.

Cost: $85 per person including wine and food

Prizes: You bet! Prizes for:

- Best Team Name
- Winning Team
- Best Team Costume
- Best Sledger

Organisation: We figure we can cater for up to 10 teams of 4 people. As you can imagine there is considerable organisation involved in the Options, so entries must close on Sunday 27 August to allow us time for wine purchasing, catering and the necessary paperwork. We also require full payment with your entry. See entry form for payment options. And of course you'll need to do lots of practising over the coming weeks. There are only a limited number of places available, so please book early to avoid disappointment.

Reminder: Entries close Sunday 27 August
